GAME RECAP: at Flint

For the second straight time in the rivalry's four-year history, the Coors Light I-75 Divide Cup trophy will remain in Saginaw. Behind an early four-goal surge, the Spirit clinched their 12th win in the last 13 games over the Flint Firebirds, following Wednesday's 9-1 win at the Dort Federal Event Center.

GAME RECAP: vs Sudbury

2018 Arizona Coyotes goaltending prospect Ivan Prosvetov stopped a career-high 54 shots for his OHL-leading third shutout, as the Saginaw Spirit defeated the Sudbury Wolves, 2-0, on Sunday at The Dow Event Center.

It was the eighth consecutive win for Prosvetov, who now takes sole possession for the most shutouts among all OHL goalies this season, giving the Spirit their six win in a row and 21 of a possible 22 points since December 8.

Nexteer Spirit Player Of The Week

Nexteer Automotive presents "Player of the Week": Saginaw Spirit Goaltender #50 Ivan Prosvetov. The Arizona Coyotes prospect recorded his 20th win this past week, including his 3rd Ontario Hockey League Career Shutout, and currently holds a .902 SAV%.

Tristan Lennox records first OHL shutout in 5-0 win over Flint

Saginaw rookie goaltender Tristan Lennox made 23 saves en route to his first career OHL shutout. The teams skated four-on-four after two penalties 21 seconds apart early in the first period, Jackson, Michigan native Blade Jenkins lit-the-lamp with his 15th goal of the season. After an attempted pass by 2019 NHL Draft prospect Nicholas Porco was intercepted by a Flint defender, Jenkins took the off the defenseman's stick. The New York Islanders prospect rifled a quick snap-shot from the top of the slot that beat Firebird goaltender Emanuel Vella under the blocker. Jenkins has recorded a point in nine of the last 10 games with 16 points during the hot-streak.
