GAME DAY PREVIEW

The Kingston Frontenacs (31-17-3-0) ended a three-game skid in Peterborough last night, concluding a five-game road schedule. The team returns to the Leon's Centre for a ninth meeting with the Oshawa Generals (24-23-1-4) tonight at 7:00 pm. The Frontenacs have teamed up with Autism Ontario for tonight's game to bring awareness to autism. The Fronts hold a 5-2-1-0 record versus the Gennies, including four straight wins over the 401 rivals. While a twelve-point lead for second-place Kingston over Oshawa is comfortable, Kingston's Division and Conference aspirations are just as uncomfortable with a nine-point deficit to the current leading Hamilton Bulldogs. As such, it is in the Fronts' best interest to focus on big picture winning and not get caught up in Oshawa's post-whistle action.

The Fronts ended a five-game winning streak by Peterborough last night, and now face a struggling Oshawa team winless in five, outscored 22-12, but will be no easier a matchup for head coach Luca Caputi's squad. Kingston has outscored Oshawa 29-20 (+9) in the eight games so far, showing how tight the battles have been won.
