GAME DAY PREVIEW

In a big division battle, the Kingston Frontenacs (34-17-3-0) face a stiff test with the red-hot Hamilton Bulldogs (37-12-2-2) coming into town tonight at 7:00 pm at Leon's Centre. Tonight's game is Retro Night, featuring a fresh new-look Count Frontenac jersey in support of Cerebral Palsy Awareness Month.

The division-leading Bulldogs hold a seven-point edge in the standings entering Friday's action, with one fewer game played, so a win tonight for head coach Luca Caputi's club would undoubtedly serve as a big step for a run at the division title. With both squads qualifying for the post-season, tonight's game is an excellent test for both teams to set bars for a potential meeting in the playoffs. Kingston comes in off a big third-period victory thanks to a third period game-winner by Shane Wright in Ottawa on Wednesday afternoon.

The Black and Gold have won four straight, sitting comfortably in second place in the division. Still, they aspire to catch their opponent tonight for the division and possible conference title. "It's a measuring stick game against the best team in the league in our building," said Caputi on Thursday. "For the better part of the year, I think we deserve to be in that class, but we have to start on time tomorrow night and go ahead and prove that." Good starts for Kingston have been a stressing point by coaches and players, and with Hamilton having a 1-6-0-0 record when trailing after the first period, it is key to improving the chances of winning.

Kingston faces a Hamilton team losing their first game after a 12-game winning stretch (to the Peterborough Petes in their last match on Mar 18). In fact, the Bulldogs have lost just three times in their previous 22 overall. Two of those losses came to Kingston on Jan 21 (5-2) and Feb 13 (5-4); however, Hamilton got some revenge in the team's last game on Feb 19 in Hamilton as the Dogs took the win on an impressive 8-2 score bringing the season series to 4-3-0-0 for Kingston (with a SO win).

With the season series winding down today, both teams figure to let it all out. The head coach added, "It's important to play in significant games at this time of the year. We've earned the right to play these games; I think, especially with them coming into our building and establishing what it could be like to play each other in the playoffs is important. It's the last meeting of the year, so nothing really save it for."
